

I like writing stories and having time to think of my own ideas and then writing these as a story.

I like writing stories, especially suspense stories.

What our pupils say about... English

I love reading, especially fairy stories.

I like reading animals books and horse stories.

I really enjoy writing. We are learning about suspense stories, but I really like writing nice, calm stories.